HAT SPRING.—Lloyd Cochran is in the city introducing an invention that is really an automatic male beautifier in the shape of a hat spring. Next to the creases in a man's pants he wants his hat creased well. It makes both the hat and head feel better and improves the shape of a devotee of fashion by keeping his hat in perfect shape and going far to keep the creases out of the brain of the wearer. For 10 cents he will do both for you. See him before he leaves the city.

SALEM GRANGE MEETING.—Salem Grange held an interesting session today and also had a fine dinner at the noon hour. Mr. White, of Polk county, made a report of Polk county granges, and Mr. Williams and daughter, of Turner, rendered some delightful music. Salem grange is in a flourishing condition, with a steadily increasing membership.

The revival meetings at Leslie M. E. church will continue over the Sabbath. The church is receiving great benefit from the Bible readings at 2:30 p. m. and from the convincing and forcible sermons of Rev. C. M. Bryan, at 7:30 p. m. each day. Services on Sunday at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Let all come and avail themselves of this golden opportunity.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE.—The time for holding the Oregon Conference of the United Evangelical church in this city has been changed from the 25 to the 4th day of April. Bishop R. Dubs, D. D. of Chicago, will preside. The session will be held on Cottage street.

Removal Sale!

Owing to the fact that we will remove our grocery store, March 1st, to the Van Eaton corner, we will sell all groceries at a reduction of

SOCIETY CHRONICLE.
Local News of Social and Fraternal Events.
Miss Marie Rockwell of the corps of teachers in the Park school, visited relatives at Turner today.
Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Patton and Mrs. E. N. Cooke returned from Portland this morning where they attended the Patton-Breymann nuptials last evening.
Mrs. S. W. Thompson and children went to Roseburg this morning where they will be the guests of Mrs. Thompson's parents, Commandant and Mrs. W. H. Byars of the soldiers home.

SOCIAL LEADER.
Basil Wagner, who has just been appointed to a clerkship in the state land department under General Odell, is a son of Dan F. Wagner, an old resident of this city. The young man has been a popular Salem society leader.

POPULAR MINISTER ILL.
Rev. John N. Denison, who was formerly pastor of the M. E. church in this city and the Centenary church at Portland, but now of the Grants Pass church, is in very poor health. Mr. Denison broke down entirely when in charge of Centenary church, falling in the pulpit; while preaching at the morning sermon.

RELIEF CORPS SOCIAL.
The Woman's Relief corps and Grand Army post will give a Martha Washington social at their hall in the State insurance building on Monday evening, February 17. There will be a select literary and musical program and with an abundance of refreshments a great good time for everybody. Admission 25 cents. All are invited.

CHICKEN PIE SUPPER.
The ladies of Central chapel will give one of their famous chicken pie suppers at the chapel on State and 17th streets Friday evening, February 21st. Supper from 5 to 9 o'clock, during which time a literary program will be rendered. All are invited. 25 cents. Children under 12 years, 15 cents.

OLD FOLK'S WHIST CLUB.
The "old folks" enjoyed the usual good time at the home of Hon. Phil Metchan Monday night, there being a good attendance. Mrs. R. B. Fleming and Mr. F. E. Hodgkin secured the first prizes, and Dr. Richardson and daughter, Miss Frances, the boobies. The club will meet next Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Fleming.

PRESBYTERIAN SOCIAL.
The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid Society gave a valentine social at the First Presbyterian church last night which was a great success in every way. The valentine booth was conducted by Postmistress Mollie Creighton, assisted by Lynn Woodin and Ernest Wilson. In the valentine booth Miss Jessie Creighton presided and sold sweet missives to blushing swains and sweethearts, while Misses Gwynne and Applegate presided over the entertainment department in a way that makes the Presbyterian church a strong social center for young people.

THE SOUSA CONCERT.
February 19th will see the greatest composer of music, the greatest band leader and the greatest instrumental orchestra in America (except Thomas perhaps) in Salem. The Statesman says of the coming Sousa concert: "We shall soon be able to see whether or not times are hard in Salem. Recently the city has been treated to many theatrical performances, several of which were quite fine indeed, and all at affordable admission fees. Now comes part of a macaroni band and purposes charging $1.50 for seats. Should the aggregation play to empty benches it must be concluded that the backbone of hard times is unbroken."

Of course, the above is not to keep people away from the pupil and equal of Gilmore, but to intimidate advertisers. People are learning however that they can get a crowd without submitting to robbery by any newspaper. Sousa will have a crowd, if the Statesman did not get free tickets.

SURPRISE PARTY.
Miss Grace Long was agreeably surprised Friday evening, at her home on State street, near Twelfth, by about thirty of her young friends. The

BREYMAN-PATTON WEDDING.
One of Salem's most prominent young business men, Mr. Hal D. Patton and Miss Ella Breymann, of Portland, were married at the home of the latter, near Mt. Tabor, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. P. S. Knight, of this city, officiated. The wedding was a quiet affair. Miss Minnie McClaine, of Portland, was maid of honor and Geo. F. Rogers, of Salem, best man. Miss Jessie Breymann, of this city, and Miss Annetta Burchardt, of Portland, were bridesmaids. The parlors and dining room were nicely decorated in evergreens, a canopy of Valentine hearts being suspended over the young couple during the ceremony. A delicious luncheon was served immediately after. Mr. and Mrs. Patton will arrive home in a few days and take up their residence with Mrs. E. N. Cooke on Summer and Court streets. Those in attendance, from this city, aside from the above mentioned, were Mrs. E. N. Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Patton, and Dr. J. M. Keene. Mrs. Patton, the bride, is a young woman of one of Oregon's first families, and will be a welcome acquisition to Salem social circles.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.
The gospel service at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon will be a testimony meeting, and will be conducted by Secretary W. C. Paige. All men are invited.

The membership of the Y. M. C. A. is 338 senior and 46 junior, making a total of 384. The contest between the "Reds" and the "Yellows" proved most beneficial to the association, both socially and financially.

Bible class every Sunday afternoon, immediately following the gospel service, led by President Hawley, of Willamette university. These meetings are open to all men, whether members or not, and are being largely attended.

Spedon, the cartoonist, will give an exhibition in the opera house February 26. This promises to be a most entertaining event. It will be the last of a series of six entertainments given under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., and no one should miss it. Secure your seats at once.

Instead of the usual gymnasium class every Saturday evening, hereafter that evening will be devoted to a spirited contest of basket or base ball, or some other interesting sport. No admission will be charged. Tonight a match game of base ball will be played between the "Hustlers" and the "Rustlers." It promises to be an interesting game.

VALENTINE PARTY.
On Friday evening Judge and Mrs. George H. Burnett gave a delightful valentine party, in honor of their niece, Miss Mina Huelat, about 45 of the friends of Miss Huelat, having been invited to participate in the happy occasion. Conversation was enlivened by the rendition of vocal and instrumental music and recitations, while anagrams was the principal game of the evening, at which Miss Ada Stapleton and Mr. George Rogers proved themselves to be most skillful, receiving the first prizes, and Miss Allie Davis and Mr. John McCourt were awarded the boobies. Delicious refreshments were served, after which dancing was indulged in. The elegant mansion was beautifully decorated with the throng of merry guests.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Weller, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bickford, and Mrs. J. R. Davis. Misses Mina Huelat, Blanche Albert, Mabel Hutton, Georgia Giltner, Frances Parkhurst, Jessie Breymann, Lucy Williams, Ada Stapleton, Rose Woodruff, Leona White, Kittle Harbord, Oda Chapman, Margaret Kinsey, Lou Hirsch, Maud Hirsch, Marie Vandervol, Bertha Forstner, Alice Davis, Ethel Hughes, Oskie Matthews, Mabel Carter, Greta Strickler, and Jessie Stump. Messrs. Clarence Hamilton, George Rogers, Jos. Baumgartner, Charles McNary, Chester

DEPARTMENT NO. 1.
Judge Burnett Presides Over the Circuit Court.

H. H. Silvers vs. Chris Kurtz, action for money; motion to make complaint more certain allowed; continued.

Harritt & McIntyre vs. Lewis Petty-John, appeal from justice court; verdict for plaintiff of $33.

State vs. John Bailey and Andrew Robinson; arraigned.

John Slough vs. Iver Larson, action for money; continued on motion of plaintiff.

Macondry & Co. vs. Keller & Sons, and Capital National bank, garnishee, action for money and attachment; judgment against defendants and garnishee on pleadings.

Wm. Horn et al., appellants, vs. F. C. Prevost et al., appeal from j. p. court; jury trial and non-suit on motion of defendant at the close of the plaintiff's case.

Over forty witnesses had been examined by the grand jury. This department of the court adjourned today. Friday they visited the state penitentiary and took a view of the inside workings of that institution.

Department No. 2, Judge H. H. Hewitt, will convene on March 2d.

All the jury were, yesterday, excused until 1 o'clock Monday afternoon. The greater portion of them went to their homes to remain during the recess.

A demurrer was filed last night with the county clerk by W. W. Thayer and W. H. Holmes, attorneys for the defendant, in the case of H. P. McNary, receiver of the Williams & England banking company vs. George Williams. The demurrer sets up that the plaintiff has no legal capacity to bring action; that facts sufficient to cause an action have not been stated and that there is a defect of parties plaintiff.

(THE ANDREW LINK CASE.)

Verdict of the Coroner's Jury—Death From Unknown Causes.

The coroner's inquest held yesterday afternoon over the body of Andrew Link resulted in the following verdict:

"That Andrew Link came to his death from causes unknown to us. John McKinney, foreman."

The jury consisted of S. C. Kightlinger, J. W. McKinney, Charles Van Wagner, L. J. Vibbert and Samuel Mundell.

Five witnesses were examined viz: E. M. Croisan, Thos. Robertson, Lewis Elralph, J. A. Bonney, Dr. S. R. Jessup and James Pentland. None of the witnesses brought out any just ground for suspicion of foul play and the jury in its verdict arrived at the only reasonable conclusion.

No mystery about it. When the Shakers offered some time ago to give away a bottle of their Digestive Cordial to any one who might call at their New York office, there was a great rush and a great many people thought they were crazy. Subsequent events proved it to have been a very clever advertising transaction, for although they gave away thousands of bottles, it was in the end profitable; nearly every one that took a free bottle came back for more and paid for it with pleasure, saying they had derived better results from its use than from any other medicine they had ever used.

There is nothing so uniformly successful in the treatment of stomach troubles as the Shaker Digestive Cordial, and what is better than all, it relieves at once.
